The presiding officer shall preserve decorum and decide all questions of order, subject to appeal to the Council.

1. During Council meetings, Councilmembers shall preserve order and decorum and shall not delay or interrupt the proceedings or refuse to obey the orders of the presiding officer or the Rules of the Council. Every Councilmember desiring to speak shall address the Chair and, upon recognition by the presiding officer, shall confine all comments to the question under debate and shall avoid all personalities and indecorous language. Once recognized, a Councilmember shall not be interrupted while speaking unless called to order by the presiding officer or unless a point of order is raised by another Councilmember. If a Councilmember is called to order while speaking, the Councilmember shall immediately cease speaking until the question of order is determined. If ruled to be in order, the Councilmember shall be permitted to proceed. If ruled to be not in order, the Councilmember shall remain silent or shall alter all remarks so as to comply with the rules of the Council. Councilmembers shall confine their questions to the particular issues before the Council. If the presiding officer fails to act, any Councilmember may move to require the presiding officer to enforce the rules and the affirmative vote of the majority of the Council shall require the presiding officer to act.

2. The presiding officer shall have the authority to preserve decorum in meetings as far as the audience, staff members and city employees are concerned. The City Manager shall also be responsible for the orderly conduct and decorum of all city employees under the manager's direction and control. Without permission from the presiding officer, no staff member, other than the staff member who has the floor, shall enter into any discussion, either directly or indirectly.
3. Citizens attending Council meetings shall also observe the same rules of propriety, decorum and good conduct applicable to members of the Council. Any person making personal, impertinent, and slanderous remarks, or who becomes boisterous while addressing the Council or while attending the Council meeting, shall be removed from the room if the Sergeant-at-Arms is so directed by the presiding officer. Unauthorized remarks from the audience, stomping of feet, whistles, yells, or similar demonstrations shall not be permitted by the presiding officer, who shall direct the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove such offenders from the room. Should the presiding officer fail to act, any member of the Council may move to require the presiding officer to enforce the rules, and the affirmative vote of the majority of the Council shall require the presiding officer to act. Any members of the public desiring to address the Council shall be recognized by the Chair, shall state their name and address in an audible tone for the record, and shall limit their remarks to the questions under discussion. Any remarks shall be addressed to the Chair and to any or all Councilmembers.

RULE 9. RIGHT OF APPEAL

RULE 18. RECONSIDERATION

After the decision on any question any Councilmember who voted with the prevailing side may move for reconsideration of any action at the same or at the next succeeding meeting, provided, however, a resolution authorizing or relating to any contract may be reconsidered at any time before the final execution thereof. A motion to reconsider shall require a 2/3 vote of all Councilmembers, whether present or not, not disqualified from voting by a conflict of interest, but, in no event, by less than four affirmative votes.

RULE 19. RESCIND

After the time for reconsideration has expired, any Councilmember who voted with the prevailing side may move to rescind any action. A motion to rescind shall require a 3/4 vote of all Councilmembers, whether present or not, not disqualified from voting by a conflict of interest, but, in no event, by less than four affirmative votes.

RULE 20. SUSPEND THE RULES

These Rules may be suspended with previous notice by a 2/3 vote of all Councilmembers, whether present or not. A motion to suspend these Rules without previous notice shall require unanimous consent.
